

We love movies as much as you do!

It's an important time of year in the film industry; award season! We've featured five past award winners that we recommend, just over the page, so make sure you check them out. Below are three of the best (or craziest, in the case of Year One) films coming soon.

There are some great films releasing over the next few months, including Five Minutes of Heaven (Sundance winner), The Final Destination (thriller) and Haeundae (Asian Cinema).

NEW RELEASE - YEAR ONE (late February)

Cast: Jack Black, Michael Cera, Vinnie Jones, Hank Azaria

A Biblical comedy about a pair of misfit hunter-gatherers who embark on a wild journey through the ancient world after being banished from their primitive village. Zed and Oh have plans to make it big. Zed has a feeling that God has "chosen" him, and leads his buddy on a trip through the unknown countryside in search of bigger things, and having a crazy adventure along the way.

NEW RELEASE - 2012 (mid March)

Cast: John Cusack, Amanda Peet, Thandie Newton, Woody Harrelson

From Roland Emmerich, director of The Day After Tomorrow and Independence Day, comes the ultimate action-adventure film, exploding with groundbreaking special effects. As the world faces a catastrophe of apocalyptic proportions, cities collapse and continents crumble. 2012 brings an end to the world and tells of the heroic struggle of the survivors.

NEW RELEASE - In The Electric Mist (mid March)

Cast: Tommy Lee Jones, John Goodman, Peter Sarsgaard

In the steamy bayous of Louisiana, a prostitute's body is found. Reformed alcoholic cop Dave Robichaux takes on the case, but he finds a drunken Hollywood star and his glamorous girlfriend in town to shoot a civil war epic and the local mafia kingpin, not to mention visions from the past, complicating his investigation. Is this the work of a serial killer?
